Today is the day for a picnic in the garden!

If you have a tent, consider putting it up in the garden or make a wigwam for some weekend fun.

- Write invitations to your family.
- Survey your family members as to what they would like in their picnics.
- Make up the picnics and pop them in the fridge.
- Decide where your picnic is going to take place, in your garden, on the balcony or inside your house.
- Find a rug for the floor.
- Maybe make some bunting using string and paper.

11:30 -
12:00 noon

Live kids dance classes with Oti Mabuse

- Find the class live on Facebook and Instagram

Gather your family together and have your picnic lunch

Play some games together:

- Pin the tail on the lamb (just like pin the tail on the donkey!)
- Egg and spoon races - don't waste eggs find an alternative. E.g. Small ball or playdoh balls.
- Duck, duck, goose. How could you change the words? Rabbit, rabbit, chick...
- Make an obstacle course. Time each other to see how long it takes.

Calling all budding Joe Wicks!

- Design your own Joe Wicks work out. Think about the warm up and cool down. Think about the timings for each set of exercises. Plan it. Test it out yourself. Make any improvements.
- Now test it out with your family. Take feedback from them and make any necessary changes.
- Keep it handy for when Joe asks for another suggested lesson...you never know you could be a winner!

Zoom, Facetime or phone a friend or family member - Wish them a Happy Easter!

Read an extract from your favourite children's book to your child.

- Explain why you love it so much
