Book of the Day

The arrival of a new boy in class sparks a funny, moving and quietly powerful story for young readers. Our narrator - we only discover her name in the last chapter - is immediately intrigued by her new classmate, who doesn't speak, or smile, and disappears at break times. She's determined to become his friend and as she gets to know him learns that Ahmet is a refugee from Syria. Finding out that his family are lost somewhere in Europe she decides to help - something that exposes both the prejudice and generosity of those around her. The plotline is very lively - it includes some excellent comic scenes at Buckingham Palace - and Rauf manages to keep the story positive and uplifting while still illustrating the cruelty and bigotry that refugees face.

Onjali Q Rauf reads from The Boy at the Back of the Class.

Author Onjali Q Rauf reads from her award-winning children's book, The Boy At the Back of the Class, which touches on the refugee crisis from a child's perspective.

Watch yesterday's short film before starting your English work.

- Look back at your notes from yesterday and remind yourself of the vocabulary you used. You will want to add to your notes after watching the clip again.
- You can choose to write a paragraph for each section of the journey or draw and write a storyboard. Make sure you include:
 - the journey in the boat,
 - how Danny gets himself and his bike up the ridge,
 - what he sees at the summit,
 - how he descends,
 - the ending on the seashore
- Remember to include the quality vocabulary you noted yesterday
- Add the emotions that you think Danny feels at each part of his journey

Book of the Day Everest

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1iWheE3b6ql>

In the late morning of May 29th 1953, the sun was shining brightly on the roof of the world, a gentle breeze was blowing and two men were there to witness it for the first time ever. Their names were Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay and the roof of the world was Everest.

This is the breathtaking story of how two very different yet equally determined men battled frost-biting temperatures, tumbling ice rocks, powerful winds and death-defying ridges to climb the world's highest mountain. Join these two unlikely heroes on the most amazing of adventures and discover the impact of hundreds of men and women that helped Hillary and Norgay achieve their goal. But triumphs can be marred with tragedy as not everyone who climbs Everest survives...

With a beautiful foreword by the greatest living explorer of our time, Sir Ranulph Fiennes, this brilliant book combines fresh and contemporary illustrations by Joe Todd-Stanton with Alexandra Stewart's captivating writing and publishes in time to celebrate the centenary of Edmund Hillary's birth. This unique narrative tells the story of how Edmund Hillary and Tenzing Norgay made their mark on the world from birth right up to their final days and the impact they've had on Nepal today.

Writing - Adrift

Look closely at the illustration and read the paragraph beneath:

"Storm-clouds gathered all around him like a pack of wolves surrounding their prey. The tormenting threat of thunder echoed through the night air, as streaks of silvery lightning illuminated the darkness. The storm was far away, for now, but it still filled his heart with fear.

He had made it this far, but how would he survive the night? Would he ever see his family again?"

- Continue the story of the man adrift in the ocean? How did he find himself in this situation? How will he stay alive on the vessel? What resources has he got in the boat to help him survive?

Nut Free Granola Energy Bars

Make these this morning then you can have them after you have been for your walk, scooter or cycle, or you could share them at tea time.

INGREDIENTS

- 125g honey (or other liquid sweetener)
- 100g butter
- 150g porridge oats
- 50g Rice Krispies
- 50g dried fruit
- 25g mixed seeds
- 10g desiccated coconut
- 75g chocolate chips (optional)

INSTRUCTIONS

1. Preheat the oven to 180c and line a dish with parchment paper. I used a 24cm sq dish.
2. Add the honey and butter to a jug and microwave gently until the ingredients have melted. You can also do this in a pan on the hob.
3. Add the oats, Rice Krispies, dried fruit, seeds and coconut to a large bowl and mix. Pour in the melted butter and honey and mix again. Finally stir in the chocolate chips.
4. Transfer this mixture into the prepared dish. Take another piece of parchment paper and use that to push down firmly on the mixture. You need to make it as compact as possible in the dish.
5. Bake in the oven for 15 minutes, leave to cool and then put it in the fridge or freezer for 1 hour. These steps are essential to stop the bars from falling apart.
6. Remove from the fridge and lift the parchment paper out of the dish. Cut into 15 large or 30 small bars.
7. Keep in the fridge or freezer.

Book of the Day!

Why not watch the film trailer for Swallows and Amazons

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ztlQkixuOmc>

The Walker children - also known as Captain John, Mate Susan, Able-Seaman Titty, and Ship's Boy Roger - set sail on the Swallow and head for Wild Cat Island. There they camp under open skies, swim in clear water and go fishing for their dinner. But their days are disturbed by the Blakett sisters, the fierce Amazon pirates. The Swallows and Amazons decide to battle it out, and so begins a summer of unforgettable discoveries and incredible adventures.

Book of the Day

The Polar Bear Explorers' Club

It sounded like a respectable and worthy enough death for an explorer - tumbling from an ice bridge to be impaled upon a mammoth tusk - but Stella really, really didn't want that to happen, just the same.

Join Stella Starflake Pearl and her three fellow explorers as they trek across the snowy Icelands and come face-to-face with frost fairies, snow queens, outlaw hideouts, unicorns, pygmy dinosaurs and carnivorous cabbages ...

When Stella and three other junior explorers get separated from their expedition can they cross the frozen wilderness and live to tell the tale?
