This week, we have been exploring the meaning and importance of tolerance in our class, school, community, and the wider world. To conclude the week, the Year 5 pupils created posters promoting tolerance, which will be displayed around the classroom and throughout the school.