In English, the children are near the end of the narrative genre. They have been planning their adventure stories using the story 'The Snorgh and The Sailor' book. They have also practised retelling their stories to their partners, using actions.

In Maths, the children have started the measurement unit, focusing on length and height. They have practically been measuring objects from around the classroom using rulers and metre sticks.

Our Geography topic this term is called 'Beside the Seaside'. The children have been looking on a map where the nearest seaside locations are to Madeley. We have also discussed what physical and human features we might see at the seaside.
