Be informed: What's the meaning?

Today, we're going to talk about British Values. You may have heard about these in the classroom or in everyday life!

These are five values that the Government decided are important to people living in the UK today.

Be informed: What's the meaning?

In 2014, the Government asked schools to teach young people about British Values.

They hoped that it would help young people to feel ready for life after leaving school.

Be heard: Everyday values

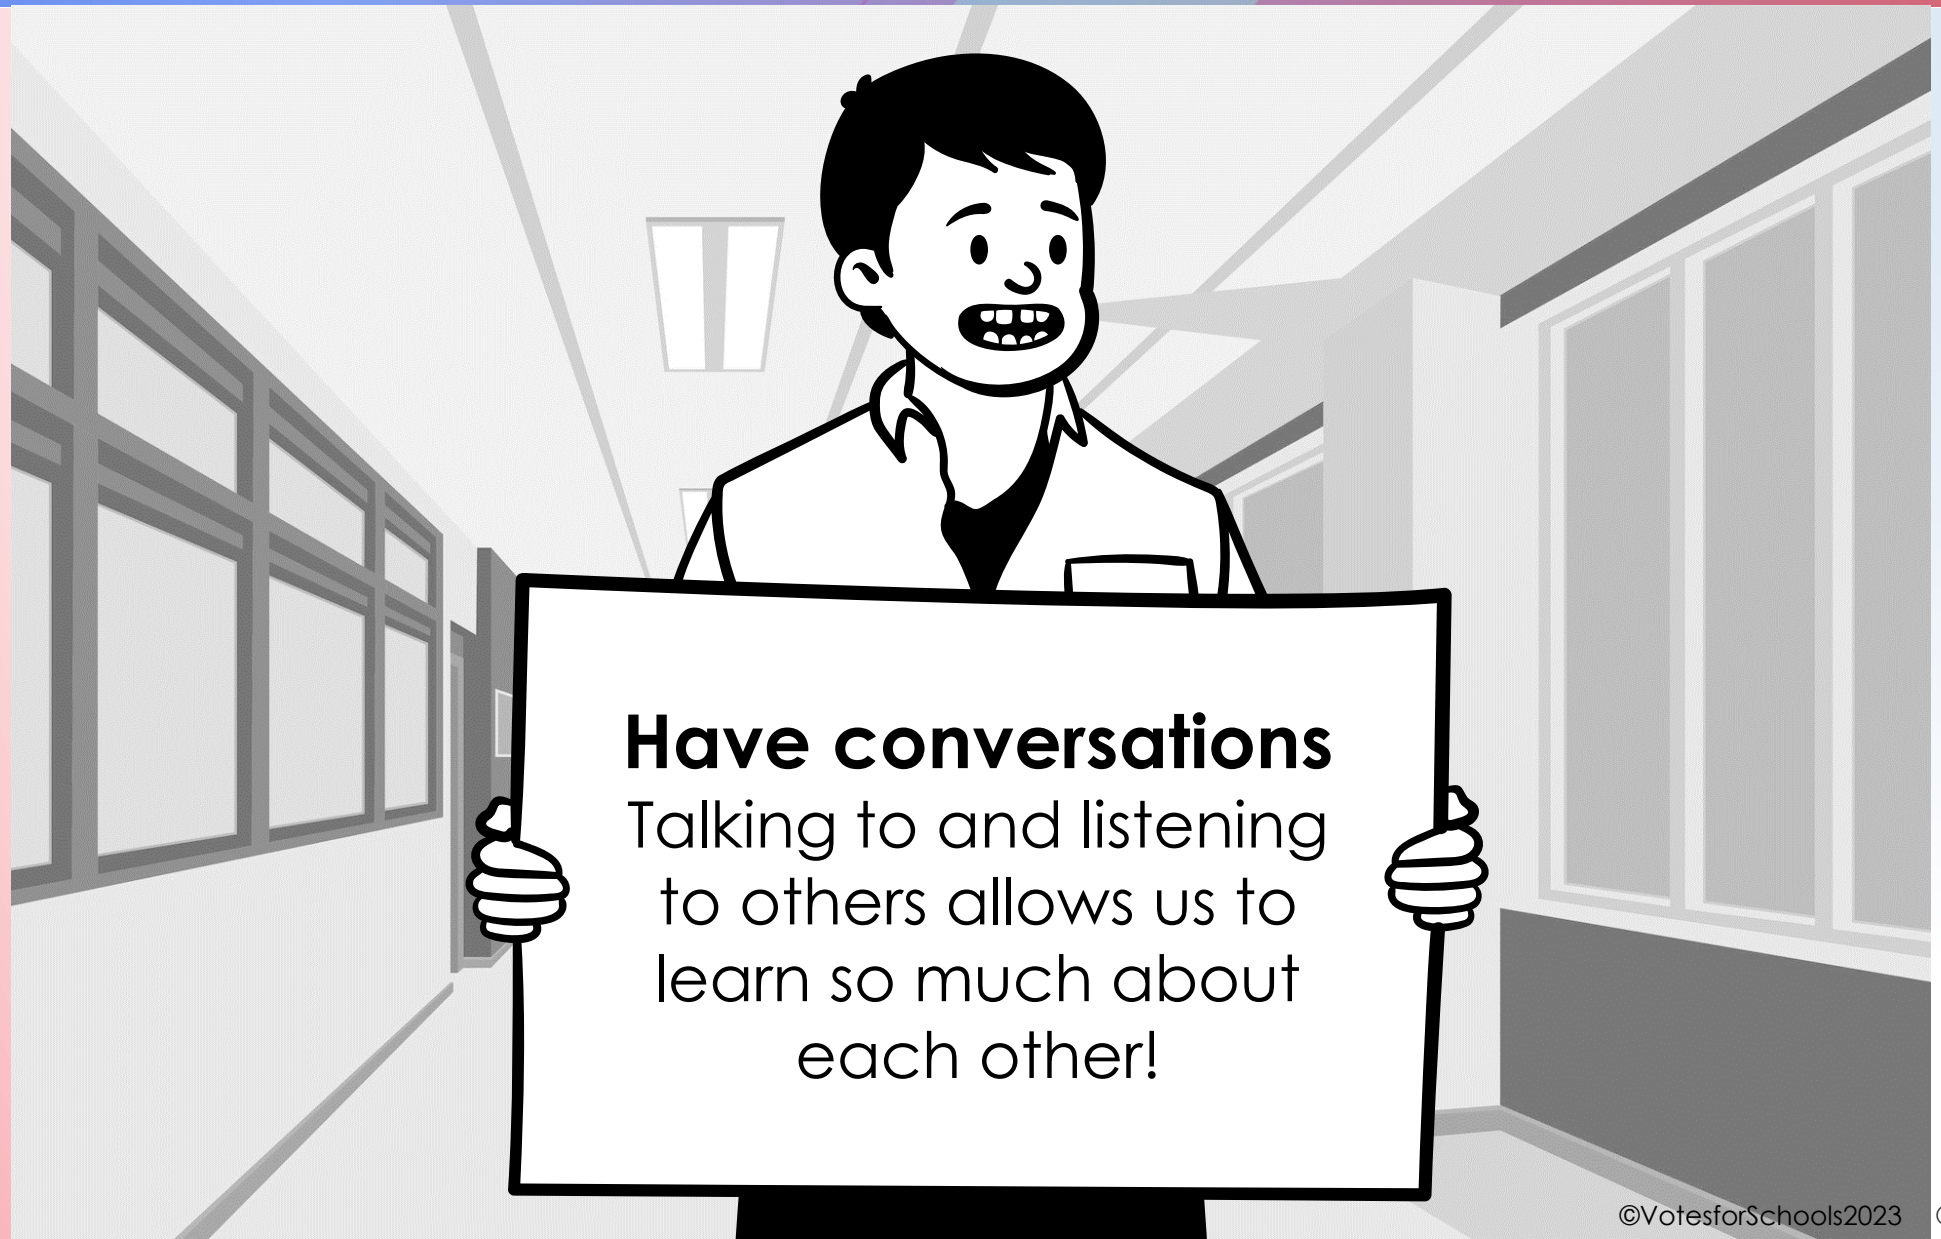

As well as knowing the meaning of each British Value, it's important that we know how they play a role in our daily lives.

Thinking it over…
Let's look at some ways you might see the British Values at work each day in school.

Let’s review what we know…

https://wordwall.net/resource/30529102/british-values

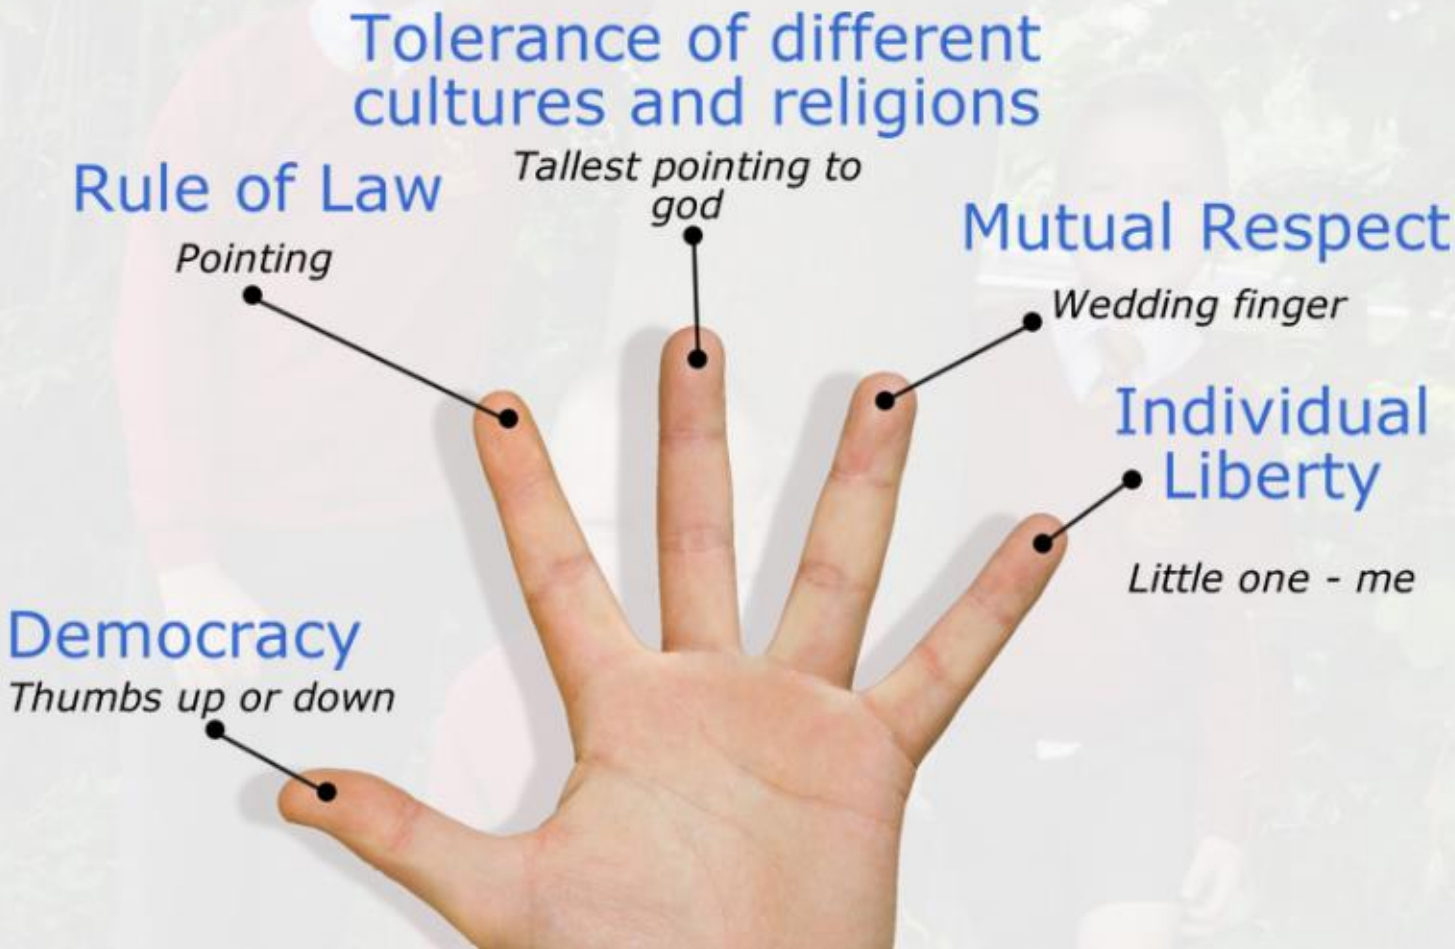

Thumb – Democracy – up or down to give opinion.

Index finger – Rule of Law - pointing

Middle finger – Tolerance of Different Faiths and Beliefs – tallest finger pointing to God.

Ring Finger – Mutual Respect – wedding ring – respect for other people

Little finger – Individual Liberty – sticks out on its own.

Time for reflection: Which value are you going to use this week?

Lord Jesus,
Help me to respect those around me.
Show me how to show tolerance and acceptance towards others.
Grant me the strength to make the right choices in all that I do.
Give me understanding of others and the ability to see things from the point of views of others.

In Jesus' name,

Amen

“Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart”,
