Who's in our

Purple Book of Stars

this week?

Date: 27.09.24

EYFS
RS – Academic
Lodge	Denis for speedy arithmetic skills during his lessons this week.
1N - Academic	Hudson for working hard in Maths when comparing numbers
1N - Citizenship	Alina for always following instructions and having a resilient attitude.
2P - Academic	Noah D -for super science work on the properties of materials.
2P - Citizenship	Amelia R - for listening carefully and following precise instructions.
LS	Angel – for a fantastic first week in Language Class
3/4 CS - Academic	Georgia – for her enthusiasm and participation in R.E.
3/4 CS - Citizenship	Joey – for following precise instructions and being a role model to others.
3/4B - Academic	Shiloh - for using her previous knowledge and understanding to support with her predictions in Science.
3/4B - Citizenship	Isaac – Thank you for trying so hard to follow precise instructions, even when it may be something that you don't want to do.
3/4 GS - Academic	Maisie – for working confidently when collaborating with her peers in drama. Demonstrating compassion whilst encouraging others to participate.
3/4GS - Citizenship	Osarugue – for listening carefully to precise instructions and trying hard to follow them independently.
5LS - Academic	April for her excellent work on sentence construction and also supporting others with their writing.
5LS - Citizenship	Oliver for showing that he is an excellent role model for others by following instructions promptly and precisely.

Who's in our

Purple Book of Stars

6B - Academic	Jake for his amazing work during maths he grasped adding and subtracting four-digit numbers and using these skills to successfully complete his reasoning questions, which help him support his peers to gain better understanding of the task in hand.
6B - Citizenship	Alessia for always following instructions fantastically whether during lessons or following the school rules to the letter. She is always Ready, Respectful and Safe.
6W - Academic	Bella – for her amazing ukelele skills. Mrs Kimber was very impressed with her ability to change through the chords including ones that were not yet taught. Well done, Bella!
6W –Citizenship	Chimwemwe for being well-mannered, courteous and for having a positive attitude towards all aspects of school. He is a fantastic role model for always being 'ready, respectful and safe.'

[Type here]

