"Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart", Colossians 3:23

How will you do this today?

What are British Values?

"Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart", Colossians 3:23

What do these values mean?

Where do we see them in school?

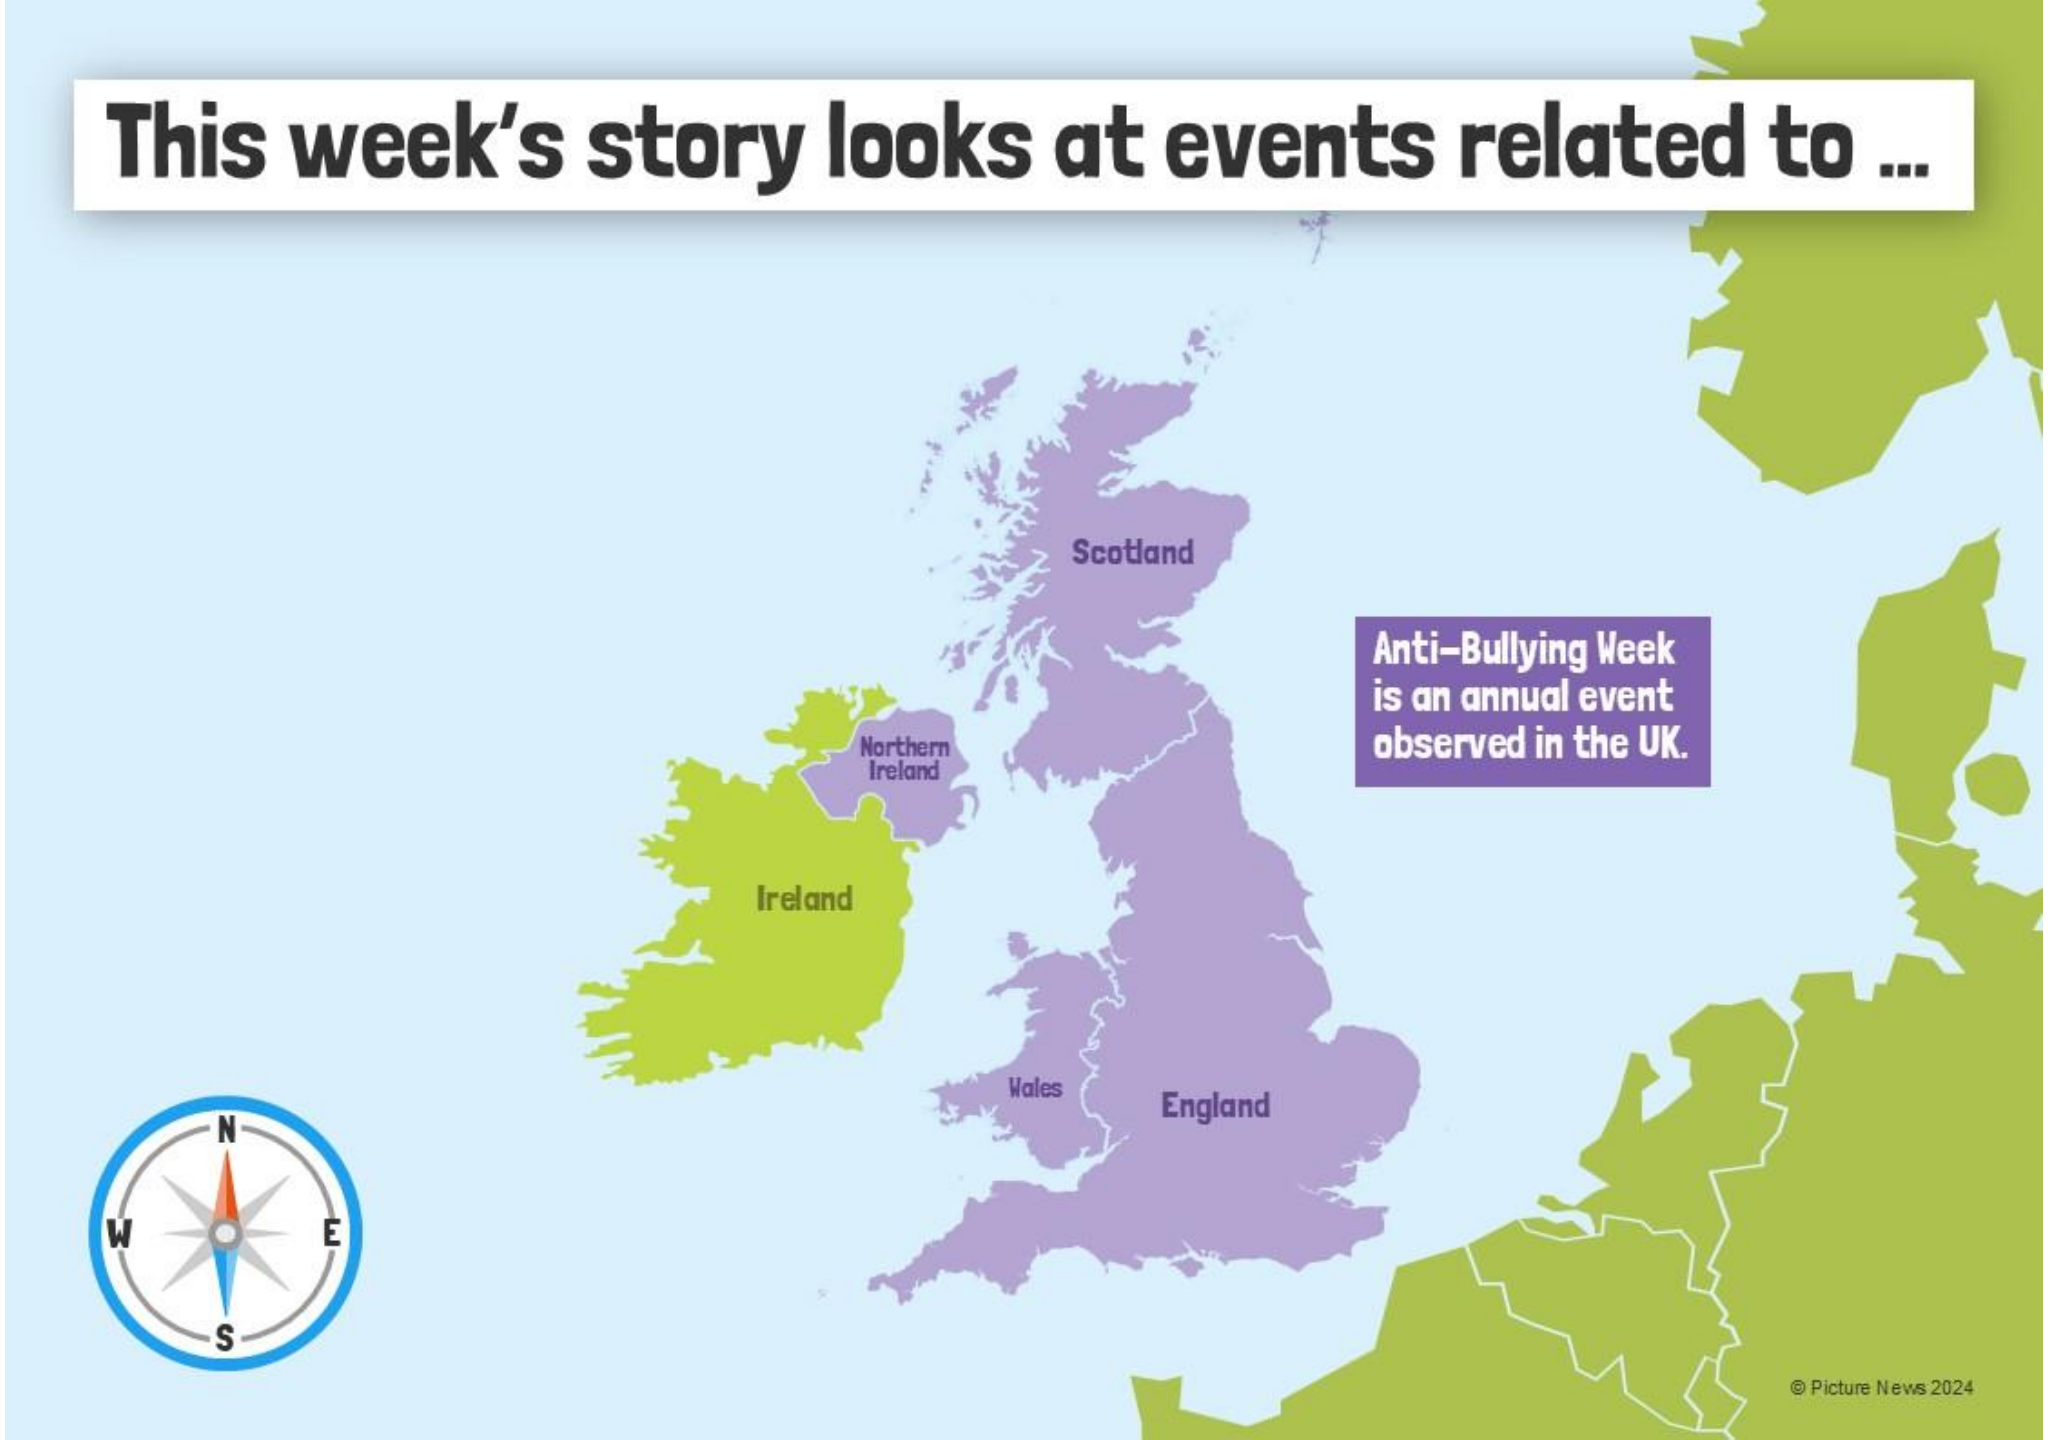

Where else might they be important?

This week is a special week.

Not only are we going to consider our British Values, but this week is also anti-bullying week.

This year, the theme for anti-bullying week is ‘choose respect’.

This week's story looks at events related to ...

Choose Respect

What do you think this year's theme, Choose Respect, means?

Choosing respect means deciding to show respect and kindness to others to bring an end to bullying.

We can all support each other to Choose Respect instead of bullying, even when we disagree with people.

Make the choice to show respect and kindness and you will empower others to do the same.

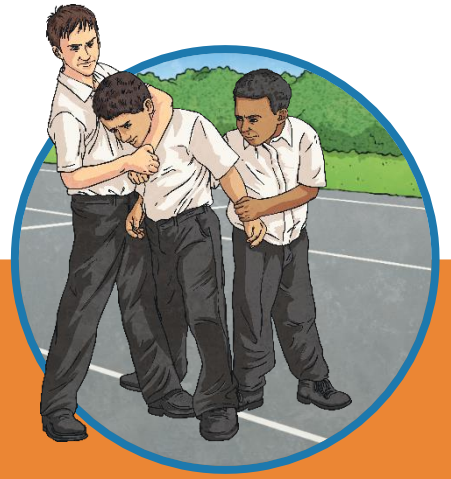

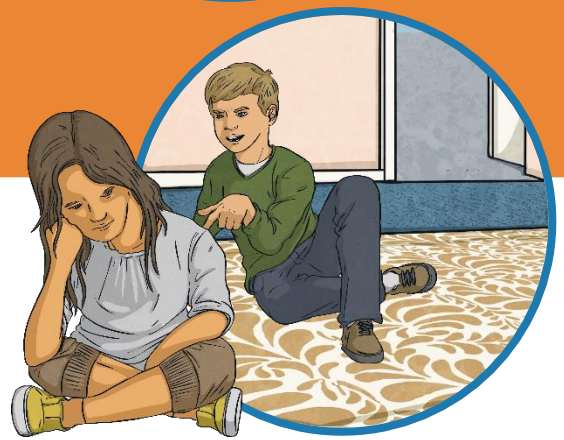

Together, we can Choose Respect and create a world where respect and kindness thrive.

What Is Bullying?

What do you think bullying is?

Bullying is:

- hurting someone else, on purpose;
- something that happens repeatedly (over and over again);
- not the same as something that happens once;
- hurtful in lots of different ways (not just physically).

Different Kinds of Bullying

Physical bullying – Includes pushing, shoving, biting, pinching, hitting and kicking. It could also be damaging or taking someone's belongings.

Verbal bullying – Includes name-calling, saying nasty things about someone, teasing and threats.

Social bullying – Includes spreading rumours about someone, leaving someone out on purpose, telling others not to be friends with someone or embarrassing someone in public.

Cyberbullying – Includes trolling, mobbing, stalking, grooming or any form of abuse online. This is done with the use of technology.

What Is Cyberbullying

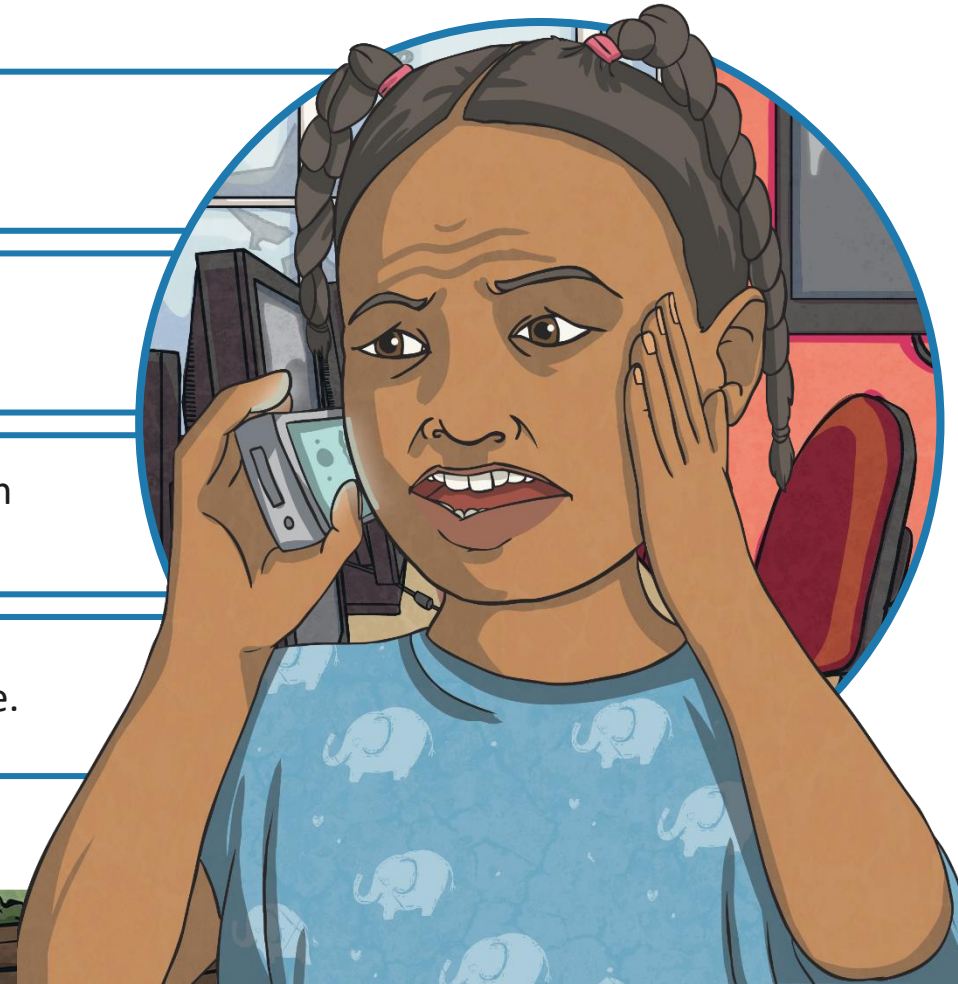

Cyberbullying – Any type of bullying that happens through the use of technological devices, such as mobile phones.

Sending nasty or inappropriate text messages or emails.

Making prank phone calls.

Posting nasty comments or photos on social media.

Deliberately leaving others out online.

The Impact of Bullying

How do you think being bullied can make someone feel?

hurt	sad	scared
left out	lonely	upset

How can it affect their daily life?

Bullying can make people feel unwell.

It could affect someone's school work.

It could affect how they feel about themselves.

It could make someone not want to come to school.

What Can I Do?

If you are being bullied – Tell someone that you trust: a parent, teacher or an older relative. They will make sure it is dealt with properly.

If you know someone who is being bullied – You must tell someone that you trust. They will be able to help. Be kind to that person. They might be feeling alone, sad and scared. Smile, talk to them or include them in something. It will make a big difference!

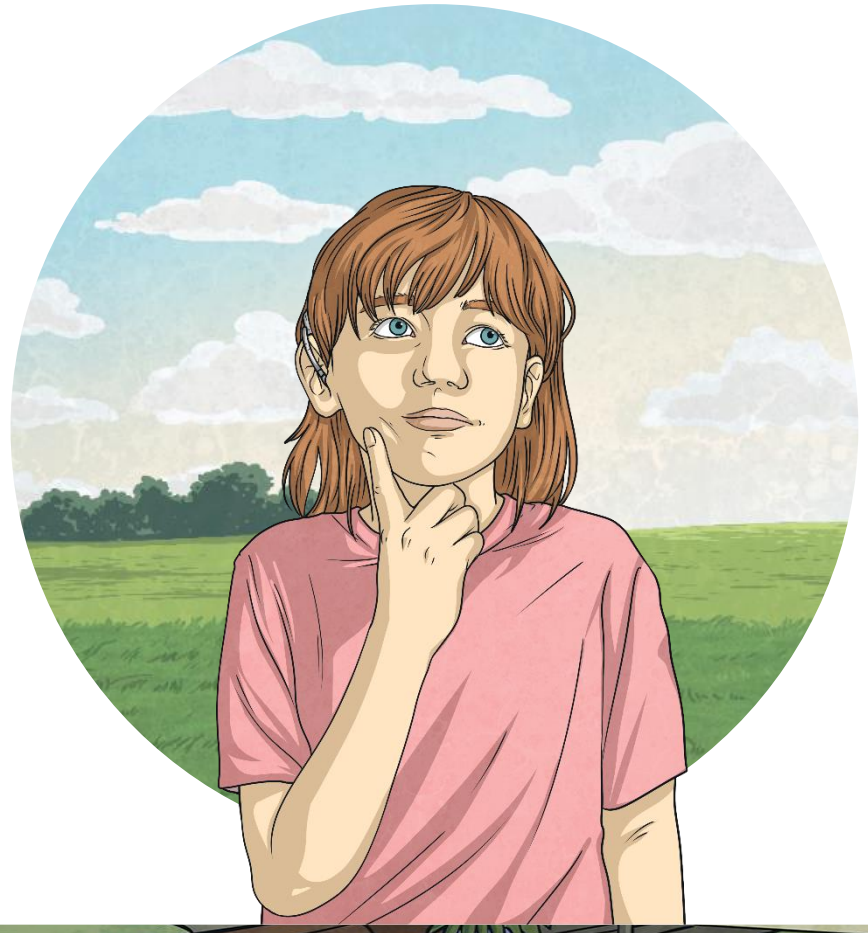

It is sometimes hard to stick up for someone who is being bullied. You might think that you will be bullied yourself, or that you and your friends will get into trouble.

Time to Think

- What have you learned today about bullying?
- Do you think you would know what to do, and who to talk to, if you or someone you know is being bullied in any way?
- What could you do to help prevent bullying?

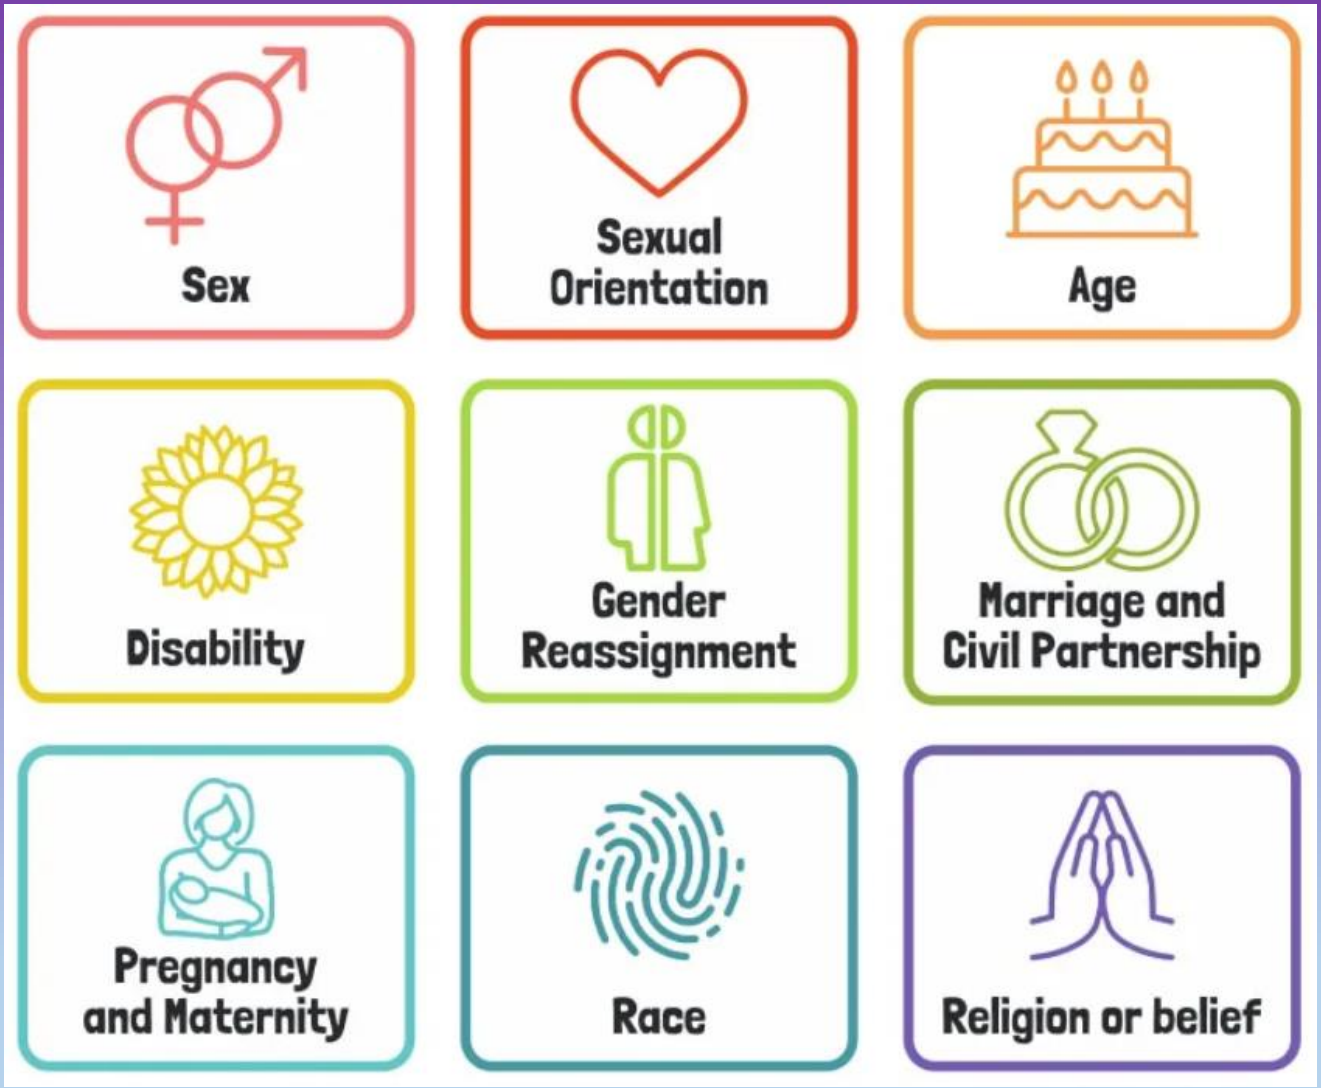

Which British Values are shown within this news?

Which of the Protected Characteristics are shown within this news?

The Equality Act became law in 2010. It covers everyone in Britain and protects people from discrimination, harassment and victimisation. Everyone in Britain is protected. This is because the Equality Act protects people against discrimination because of the protected characteristics that we all have.

Bullying can sometimes be discrimination. Discrimination is when someone is treated unfairly because of a protected characteristic. We can all 'Choose Respect' to help make our school happy, comfortable and safe for everyone.

UN Rights of the Child

All children have these rights. No child should be bullied because of who they are, where they live, the language they speak, their belief or religion, what they look like, if they are a boy or girl or if they have a disability.

What does the Bible have to say?

A new command I give you: Love one another.

As I have loved you, so you must love one another.

By this, everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another.

John 13:34–35

To make this prayer your own, please join in or say Amen at the end.

Prayer

Dear God,

Thank you for creating each of us unique and special.

Help us to show kindness and respect to everyone we meet, valuing their differences as much as we value our own.

Teach us to follow the example of Jesus by loving one another and choosing respect in all we do.

Amen
