

Who's in our

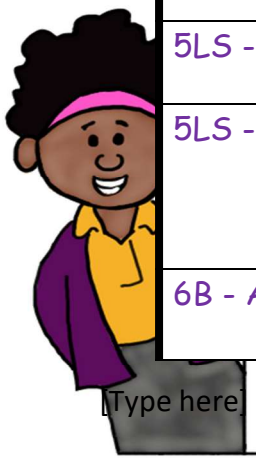

Purple Book of Stars

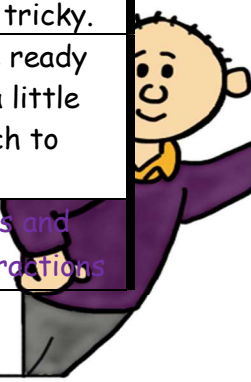

this week?

Date: 08.11.24

Special focus:
1N - Academic	Andy for his excellent understanding of how people celebrate Diwali and writing in complete sentences.
1N - Citizenship	Oakley for showing a great attitude this week and showing helping people who may need support in their learning.
2P - Academic	Myla-Rae for her wonderful attitude to her work. She really is a shining example of someone who works with all of her heart and really tries her best in all lessons. Well done Myla-Rae!
2P - Citizenship	Kayler for being such a caring and compassionate member of the class.
3/4 CS - Academic	Isabella- for recognising where electricity comes from and the dangers surrounding it. Well done for creating your beautiful poster!
3/4 CS - Citizenship	Melissa – for returning from half term ready and raring to go! Melissa is always polite around school and always shows her impeccable manners
3/4B - Academic	Noah W for his wonderful retrieval during our reading lessons. He has listened well to texts and tried hard to find the answers.
3/4B - Citizenship	Hayley for being able to work well with anyone that she is working with. She listens well to her partner or team and is beginning to offer her own ideas.
3/4 GS - Academic	Milan for showing positivity and resilience when completing her maths work, even when she finds it a bit tricky.
3/4GS - Citizenship	Joseph for always being kind and helpful to staff and his peers. He always tries his best to follow school rules.
5LS - Academic	Dexter for making progress in understanding inverse operations, working hard, even when he found it tricky.
5LS - Citizenship	Isabelle for coming back after half term and be ready to tackle new challenges, even when they seem a little scary! You have a fantastic attitude and approach to your work.
6B - Academic	Harriet for working extremely hard in her maths and mastering identifying, comparing and ordering fractions

Who's in our

Purple Book of Stars

	this week? Date: 08.11.24
6B - Citizenship	Rupert for returning from half-term and continuing to be polite, courteous and well- mannered and ensuring he is aways ready, respectful and safe.
6W - Academic	Shane for his outstanding effort towards his independent reading. He has been reading every day at home and his confidence is beginning to shine through. Amazing work Shane!
6W –Citizenship	Addison for returning after half term, ready to learn and follow our school motto, 'Ready, Respectful and Safe.' Well done, Addison, keep up the great attitude!

[Type here]

