

Who's in our

Purple Book of Stars

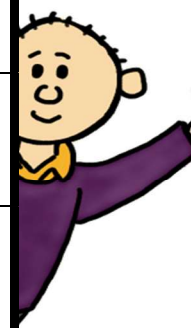

this week?

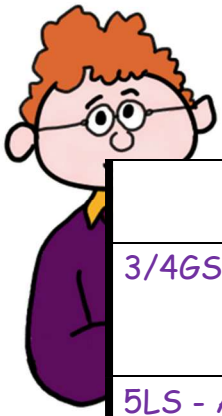

Date: 03.03.2025

Special focus: lunchtime expectations
RS – Academic	Freddie for his super maths this week when comparing numbers up to 10, well done!
RS - Citizenship	Alina for playing beautifully with her friends, demonstrating that she is being ready, respectful and safe.
KS1
Nest	Wayne-Leigh for his effort in Science this week, he joined in with the Lodge and worked well in a team.
Lodge	Scarlett for her listening skills and positive attitude in Science.
1N - Academic	Edith for her super understanding of Lent and making thoughtful suggestions
1N - Citizenship	Violet for having lovely manners and being ready, respectful and safe at Lunchtime
2P - Academic	Noah W for some super work when describing parts of a dragon in our writing lessons this week.
2P - Citizenship	Alex for his improved behaviour at lunchtime and for helping to tidy away on the playground.
LS	Kennedy for her perseverance when making a castle for her Jack and the Beanstalk story.
KS2
3/4 CS - Academic	Ruari for his continued improvement in all subjects! He is really motivated, and it is showing through how hard he really does work! Well done Ruari!
3/ 4 CS - Citizenship	Dylan for ensuring that he is always displaying ready respectful and safe, both in and out of the classroom! You are a superstar Dylan!
3/4B - Academic	Blleu for her enthusiasm and super observational skills during science. (I think that you would make a fantastic dentist when you are older.)
3/4B - Citizenship	Stan for ensuring that he is always ready, respectful and safe, both in the classroom and at playtimes. You are a wonderful role model Stan.
3/4 GS - Academic	Albert for being a marvellous mathematician. Well done for completing all your activities and persevering with challenges. You have worked with a smile and helped others in the group who were struggling. Keep it up 😊.

3/4GS - Citizenship	Mollie for being a wonderful friend and remaining ready, respectful and safe at all times during lunchtimes.
5LS - Academic	Layla for her determination to complete all her work in lessons – you have worked very hard throughout the week, especially in Maths!
5LS - Citizenship	Tommy for always being well-mannered and polite during lunchtimes – you are a super star!
6B - Academic	Poppie for always trying her best ensuring, especially in maths, where she presents her work in a fashion that helps her grasp understanding of the task in hand.
6B - Citizenship	Megan J for always being always being polite and READY, RESPECTFUL AND SAFE during Lunchtime.
6W - Academic	Shane for putting a hundred percent into all of his work.
6W –Citizenship	Ellis for being an excellent friend to his peers during class where he supported other children and especially during lunchtime.

