NSPCC's Talk PANTS in Telford week

Dear Parents/Carers,

This term, our school will be taking part in the NSPCC's Talk PANTS in Telford week (WB 20.10.25). We will be discussing the NSPCC's Talk PANTS rules in our PSHE lessons and taking part in activities. During these discussions, we aim to teach our children important safety skills without giving explicit information or telling scary stories.

These are the PANTS rules:

Privates are private.

Always remember your body belongs to you.

No means no.

Talk about secrets that upset you.

Speak up, someone can help.

The lessons empower children, in an age-appropriate way, to recognise their rights to their own bodies, say no to touch that is unwanted, and tell someone if they feel uncomfortable. The lessons include activities which help children understand:

- appropriate and inappropriate touch.
- their right to say no to things that make them feel uncomfortable or upset.
- the names for parts of the body.
- who to turn to if ever they feel upset or worried.

We'd love to invite parents and carers to a workshop, where you'll learn more about the campaign and discover ways to support these important conversations at home.

The session will be led by an NSPCC team member.

Date: Thursday 23rd October 2025
Time: 2.30pm
Location: South Hall

We would really appreciate it if as many of you as possible could attend

If you would like to know more about the NSPCC's campaign, including a short film and parent guide to help you continue the 'Talk PANTS' conversation at home, more information can be found at: nspcc.org.uk/pants
