

Who's in our

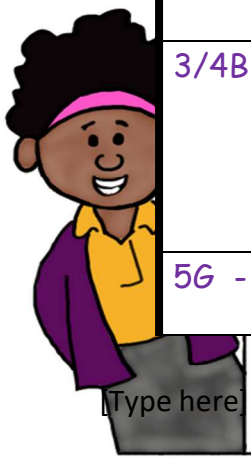

Purple Book of Stars

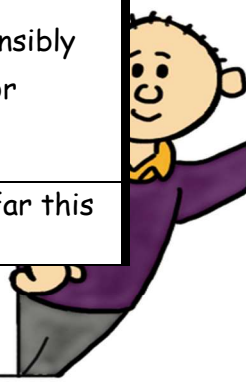

this week?

Date: 07.11.2025

EYFS
RS – Academic
KS1
1N - Academic	Gabe for his super attitude towards his maths learning. You have tried hard to add and subtract using a range of different methods
1N - Citizenship	Evelyn for trying hard this week to walk smartly and sensibly through school
2P - Academic	Lucas for super work in science when investigating the effects of different exercises on our body.
2P - Citizenship	Edith for lining up smartly and walking sensibly around school.
LS	Kadie-Reign for her fantastic efforts in building strong sentences this week
KS2
3/4 S - Academic	Mollie D for her wonderful effort during our history lessons. The post-assessment quiz showed us just how much you have learnt. Well done!
3/4 S - Citizenship	Stan for being a wonderful role model to his peers by lining up sensibly and walking safely and respectfully around school. Your thoughtful actions help make our school a better place — great job, Stan!
3/4B - Academic	Lola W showing perseverance and determination in maths this week. You can successfully add and use exchange when needed — what an achievement! I'm proud of you, Lola!
3/4B - Citizenship	Noah W for showing fantastic self-control and responsibility by lining up smartly and walking sensibly around school. You're setting a great example for others — well done!
5G - Academic	Ollie for his fabulous progress in arithmetic so far this year!

Who's in our

Purple Book of Stars

5G - Citizenship	Milan for always being a role model to others when we are lining up and moving around school: always setting the example of our John Fletcher expectations!
5W - Academic	Isabella for her thoughtful and insightful contributions during class discussions and lessons—your ideas have helped others think more deeply and sparked some great conversations!
5W - Citizenship	Mariah her fantastic behaviour by lining up smartly and walking sensibly around school. Whether heading to assembly, lunch, or the playground, Mariah has been a brilliant role model by always being ready, respectful, and safe.
6B - Academic	Harry for working extremely hard, taking on board advise given and grasping his understanding and knowledge of ordering and comparing fractions
6B - Citizenship	Isabelle for her consistently excellent behaviour, always being ready, respectful and safe and for constantly walking and lining up smartly around school.
