

Who's in our

Purple Book of Stars

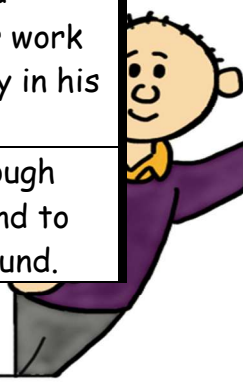

this week?

Date: 08.05.2026

EYFS
RS – Academic	Hunter for being more engaged in his writing.
RS - Citizenship	Joey for being sensible and a great role model in the dinner hall.
KS1
1N - Academic	Taliyah for her excellent effort in maths, recognising and finding halves and quarters
1N – Citizenship	Eddy for trying his best to be sensible in the hall at lunch time
2P – Academic	Tilly for super work in Geography completing her fact file about the continent of Africa.
2P - Citizenship	Laci for being very helpful to others and around the classroom.
LS	Daisy for her amazing maths and can do attitude this week.
KS2
3/4 S - Academic	Cristian for working hard this week in maths. You persevered and enjoyed working with Mr Peel in your intervention about mass.
3/4 S - Citizenship	Olivia for ensuring that she is ready, respectful and safe at all times in the dinner hall.
3/4B - Academic	Amara for completing her task baskets and working with all of her heart this week. Well done!
3/4B - Citizenship	Noah W for always showing respect in the dining hall and following our school expectations so well. You are a truly wonderful person!
5GW - Academic	Reuben for being an extremely confident and accomplished mathematician this week in our work on coordinates and showing great consistency in his work across the week.
5GW - Citizenship	Milan for always setting a good example through her sensible behaviour and being a good friend to all: in the classroom, dining room and playground.

Who's in our

Purple Book of Stars

5W - Academic	Livie for her great understanding of position and direction in maths, especially when reflecting and translating shapes. Keep up the fantastic work!
5W - Citizenship	Luna for always being helpful and first to volunteer for jobs around the classroom.
6B - Academic
6B - Citizenship	Tidy classroom / tidy mind or Hope

[Type here]

